

VOLUNTEER SAFETY GUIDE

Thank you for your dedication as a PGA TOUR Volunteer! Health & Safety continues to be our number one priority and we thank you for leading by example in following these protocols, and most importantly, have fun!

VOLUNTEER SAFETY PLEDGE AND CULTURE

- I am knowledgeable of safety policies and procedures in my role.
- In uniform, I am viewed as a safe person to approach.
- I take a proactive approach to safety and know who to contact.

The safety culture for volunteers is founded on the following expectations:

SEE Something (Be aware of your surroundings)

- Pay attention to behavior that can cause injuries
- Identify unsafe conditions and damage to property
- Notice suspicious activities or persons

SAY Something (Know who to contact)

- Report injuries to first aid
- Report unsafe conditions and damage to property to Tournament Staff
- Report suspicious activities to Security

DO Something (Be proactive - Take action as necessary)

- Provide comfort to injured persons
- Ensure unsafe conditions will not harm others
